Position: Southern Colorado Field Organizer
Type: Full time
Reports to: Political and Organizing Manager
Location: Hybrid –
  ● The position is expected to be present in One Colorado’s Pueblo office two days a week.
  ● The position will also have occasional responsibilities in Denver 1 - 2 days a month.
Position Timeline: This position is grant funded and will end December 31, 2024*
Application deadline: 11:59 pm on September 18, 2023

THE ORGANIZATION
One Colorado is the state’s leading advocacy organization dedicated to advancing equality and opportunity for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) Coloradans and their families. Our vision is a fair and just Colorado.

One Colorado is comprised of three organizations: One Colorado Education Fund, a 501(c)3 that leads the organization’s public education and civic engagement efforts; One Colorado, a 501(c)4 that leads the organization’s lobbying and advocacy efforts; and One Colorado PAC, a state political committee that supports the organization’s political endorsements.

THE POSITION
This is not an entry-level position. One Colorado is seeking an experienced Field Organizer to plan, coordinate and implement the organization’s grassroots organizing and public education efforts in Southern Colorado. In collaboration with the Political and Organizing Manager, the Field Organizer will develop a comprehensive plan to engage and mobilize LGBTQ+ Coloradans and allies on the organization’s key priorities, including protecting our victories, advancing transgender equality, and addressing barriers to lived equality in our community.

This work is based in Pueblo County, and the ideal candidate will be familiar with Pueblo County and have knowledge of food resources and networks. The ideal candidate will have a proven track record in grassroots field organizing, community engagement, volunteer recruitment and management, civic engagement, and coalition building. The ideal candidate will work to build and maintain relationships with community partners and demonstrate an ability to excel in a fast-paced environment. This position offers an excellent opportunity to learn about LGBTQ+ issues in Colorado, gain community organizing and campaign experience, participate in winning grassroots campaigns to advance LGBTQ+ equality, and improve the lives of LGBTQ+ Coloradans and their families.

One Colorado is seeking a candidate who is results-focused, highly driven, possesses outstanding interpersonal communication skills, and organized. The Southern Colorado Field Organizer models the values of the One Colorado team, including participative management, teamwork, collaboration, work/life balance, and commitment to social justice and racial equity.
Priority will be given to candidates that reside in Pueblo County, Colorado Springs, or the surrounding area.

*This position is grant funded and expected to end December 31, 2024.
